EMPOWERMENT

What is the Circle of Empowerment?

Everyday Mary Rigg empowers people in Indianapolis. The Circle of Empowerment recognizes your commitment to this philosophy through financial giving that unites and empowers our clients and staff as they create better opportunities together.

As a member of the Circle of Empowerment, your decision to support Mary Rigg is recognized by keeping you up-to-date on the impact of your gifts and providing you with opportunities to stay engaged in its mission.

Why the Circle of Empowerment Matters

By committing your financial support, you strengthen the foundation of Mary Rigg. Your annual gift will give food access to families, opportunities for education and career development to adults, and a safe place to play for children during times they are most vulnerable. It also ensures our ability to continue this vitally important programming to the community regardless of economic situations, as well as the flexibility to adjust to meet changing needs of students, adults, and families in today's environment.

Donor Recognition

Your generous support will be recognized as we show you how we put your gifts to use. We will deepen your engagement through exclusive opportunities to learn about the impact of your contributions. With different levels, you will determine the impact of your giving and the engagement opportunities available to you. The Circle of Empowerment wants you to be comfortable in your giving, level of engagement, and choice in the best opportunities for you and your family.

Circle of Empowerment members are acknowledge in various forms by their giving levels, each with its own engagement opportunities.

Circle of Empowerment

Your gift will...

Support students before, during, and after school. It also supports the summer day camp program that provides a safe place, nutritious meals, prevents summer learning loss, and provides opportunities to have new experiences and make personal discoveries about themselves.

Provide vocational training and educational opportunities for adults that puts them on the path to earning sustainable wages, provides insurance for their families, and realize their self-worth.

Assist families and individuals dealing with financial hardships through the food market, emergency financial referrals, and specialized services that meet people where they are through individualized success plans.

MAKE A GIFT

Making your annual financial contribution to Mary Rigg can be done in many ways. The two most popular ways are either online at www.maryrigg.com/donate or by sending a check or money order made payable to "Mary Rigg Neighborhood Center" to 1920 W Morris St. Indianapolis, IN 46221.

Other types of gifts such as stocks, securities, donor advised funds or family foundations are also wonderful ways in which you can support Mary Rigg.
